

Central Plateau Transition

Transitioning the central plateau for long-term waste management is a key part of the Hanford vision. Determining the disposition of the “canyon” facilities, deactivating the Plutonium Finishing Plant and disposing of solid waste are the desired outcomes.